Appendix to the DOG SHOWS and SHOW JUDGES REGULATIONS of the Fédération Cynologique Internationale COMPLEMENTARY RULES FOR THE TRAVEL EXPENSES OF THE JUDGES

1.

All usual travel expenses including real kilometrage, parking, train, bus, taxi, flight (a reasonably priced economy ticket including a cancellation insurance – if possible - and an option for changeability), as well as meals during travel to the show, incurred by a judge have to be reimbursed immediately on arrival.

2.

For judging at all FCI World and Europe Section Shows as well as at International FCI Shows organized in countries belonging to the FCI European Section, a judge is to receive from the show organiser, in addition to the previously mentioned costs (see item 1), an allowance of at least 50 € for each travel day and at least 75€ for each judging day, i.e., per international FCI-CACIB show held daily.
If the judge travels by car, the corresponding kilometrage will be paid at 0.50 €/km.

For judging at an FCI Section Show as well as at FCI International Shows organised in countries belonging to the other FCI sections, the “allowance” amounts to at least 35 € (judging and travel day) in addition to the above costs (see item 1).

If the judge travels by car, the corresponding kilometrage will be paid at 0.35 €/km.

At all FCI international shows, organisers can provide daily allowance for their domestic judges according to national laws.

3.

Regardless previous points 1 and 2, judges and organisers can make agreements as long as both parties have consented and signed the terms prior to the show, and specifically when the relevant national tax regulations require so.
